CONFESSED AFTER YEARS. A Murder Brought to Light and the Murderer Suicides.

A letter from Davidson College, N. C., says: Ten years ago a negro named Wallace was found dead on the railroad track which runs through this town. It was supposed at the time that he had been drunk and had lain down on the track, gone to sleep, and been run over by the train. An inquest was held and this was the verdict. Wallace was buried and no more was thought of the matter. Palmetto Prohibiton Bill.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.] COLUMBIA, S. C., December 13.—The voluminous and stringent prohibition Immigrant Ticket bill passed its third reading in the House this morning, and the Senate will now have to stroggle with it. The general impression seems to be that the Senate will not pass it. The bill prohibits the sale of honor save for "medicinal, sci-entific, and sacramental purposes," and American agents to cease the sale of for these purposes dispensaries are to be established at the county-seats and in Charleston. The sales to these dispensaries are to be made by a State commissioner, who is to purchase all liquor bought for use in the State and sell to the dispensaries.

NEW YORK, December 13.—There was a fair amount of trading on the Stock Exchange during the morning hours to-day. The Gould stocks, as on several proceding days, were the features. They were heavily pressed for sale from the opining up to 10:30 A. M., when under their lead prices were 14 to 1 per cent. lower than they closed last evening. Towards 11 o'clock the seiling died out and the market became almost stagnant. A few of the list were bid up fractionally from the lowest figures, but in the second hour, on the announcement of further engagements of gold for shipment abroad, there was renewed seiling to a moderate extent, under which prices again declined to the lowest point by midday.

NEW YORK COTTON MARKET.

New YORK, December 13.—Cotton—Liverpool this morning was disappointing, on which our market declined. Light receipts, however, encouraged buying and a receivery followed, but the improvement was met with liberal offerings and a sight wonkness was again developed, attended with a somewhat feverish and unsettled tone. The anti-option bill is a restraint to both activity and firmness, and caused some disposition to realize. Receipts at the ports for the day are estimated at 40,000 bales. Outside of New Orleans the movement will not exceed 18,000 bales.

The afternoon cotton market was active on a steady upward movement in quotations, which resulted before the last hour in advancing the NEW YORK COTTON MARKET.

The afternoon cotton market was active on a steady upward movement in quotations, which resulted before the last hour in advancing the list within a rew points of last night's final figures, the strength being largely due to reports from Washington that dilatory tactics would be resorted to by the opponents of the anti-option bill in the Senate to prevent its passage. Just before the close realiting orders resulted in a decline, the net result of the day's business being a loss of 4 to 6 points on sales of 215,000 bales.
